Visible and invisible, nature, people and horses. The Artwork of Raycho Stanev capture the feeling of the movement that is around us. His progression from the Fiction through the Non Fiction to Fabulous exudes a calmness that is enhanced by years of researched pen ink and watercolor pencil techniques. The composition, on the other hand, recreate stability in movement - plots that are more concrete than abstract. Their symbolism, taken out of context, takes on a clear and definite form. Like key words from a text that set direction and shape a work.
